Easter Dancing Party by Mariam Chapter and Masonic Club

When on Tuesday evening of this week the members of Mariam chapter No. 14, Order of the Eastern Star, and of the Masonic club entertained at an Easter dancing party in the Berthana, there were a large number of Masonic folk and their friends present including quite a number of out of town visitors and they spent a most enjoyable evening for the members of the committee arranging the event had left nothing undone which would add to the enjoyment of all. From the time of the grand march at 9:30 o'clock until after 12, Miss Thatcher's splendid orchestra gave a fine program of dance selections and there were some special features which were exceptionally delightful. The grand march was especially effective and was led by the worthy matron of Mariam chapter, Mrs. A. W. Putnam, and the president of the Masonic club, Albert Ward, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Lewis followed.

One of the special attractions of the ball and of the grand march was little Master Ralph Corey Roberts, aged 3 years who danced as Uncle Sam and bearing a silken flag, had the honor of leading the grand march, once around the ball room and then through the center to the north where a dais had been erected on which rested a golden standard. Into this standard Master Roberts placed the flag. Following the dais were two little girls, Inez Virginia True and Ruth Virginia Roberts, bearing baskets of flowers and behind them came dainty 10 year old Margaret Ward, representing "Springtime," with a beautiful basket of bright tulips. Garlands of flowers bound this trio of children and they formed a beautiful picture. When "Old Glory," borne by the youthful color-bearer, appeared it was met with instantaneous recognition. At the close of the march the spirit of patriotism was still manifested by the singing of "Americans, They Come" by Mrs. Fred N. Hess. Later during an intermission the "Waltz Song" from Carmen was beautifully sung by Mrs. Warren C. Binford as another pleasing feature of the evening's entertainment.

During the evening delicious refreshments were served at tables decorated with ferns and sweet peas and in the blue room where card tables were arranged and where those who did not dance enjoyed a delightful evening. Fruit blossoms were arranged. The bright pink and white blossoms were also used effectively in the reception hall.

Altogether the party was one of the most informally delightful dances given in Ogdan for several months and the program which had been arranged by the committees proved exceptionally entertaining. The sentiment expressed at the dance was that a party of such a social nature should be repeated in the very near future. Those who served on the several committees and who are deserving of praise for the success of the party were:

Entertainment—Mrs. Ralph D. Roberts.
Music and decorations—Mrs. F. N. Hess and Mrs. W. C. Binford.
Refreshments—Mrs. J. R. Coper, Mrs. I. N. Fulton, Mrs. John A. Munson and Mrs. J. H. Spargo.

SIX BOYS APPEAR IN COURT ON SCHOOL SHOOTING

Six of the boys who were shooting firearms in the high school assembly room during the Classicallia two weeks ago, at which time Miss Verna Davidson, a teacher of the Madison school, was shot in the foot, appeared this morning before Judge Dan Sullivan of the juvenile court for arraignment on a charge of violating the city ordinance prohibiting the discharge of firearms within the city limits.

Five of the boys entered pleas of guilty, but Charles Wood employed counsel to defend him and entered a plea of "not guilty" through his attorney, Captain Hultsiek. The court was impressed by the manner in which the boys stated their cases, showing a willingness to take whatever punishment might be meted out to them by the operation of the law. But the court was surprised when each of the boys stated that he did not know that there was a law prohibiting the shooting of blanks, or even any kind of firearms within the city, and the further statement that they had been given permission by the school principal to shoot blanks during the Classicallia function.

It was when the court asked the boys who had entered pleas of guilty to violating the ordinance, if they had anything to say why sentence should not be passed upon them, that each one said he did not know of the ordinance, and had been given permission. Judge Sullivan appreciated the attitude of the boys, but felt it his duty to explain to them that no person can give another permission to violate the law, because the law is made to be respected, even though the boys and the school authorities themselves were ignorant concerning its provisions. No charge was made against any of the boys alleging the shooting of Miss Davidson. At the conclusion of the hearing the mystery of which boy fired the shot that wounded the teacher was left unsolved. It is believed, however, that the boy who fled to Idaho the day following the Classicallia may have knowledge that caused his flight.

The same sentence was given to each of the five who pleaded guilty. The court placed the five boys on six months' probation with each to be under the control and supervision of the court during the time the sentence runs. The conditions of the probation are that none of them will be permitted to attend any public dance within Ogdan city during the six months, and at the end of the present school term they must get jobs at useful work or be sent out to farms to hoe beets and do other manual labor.

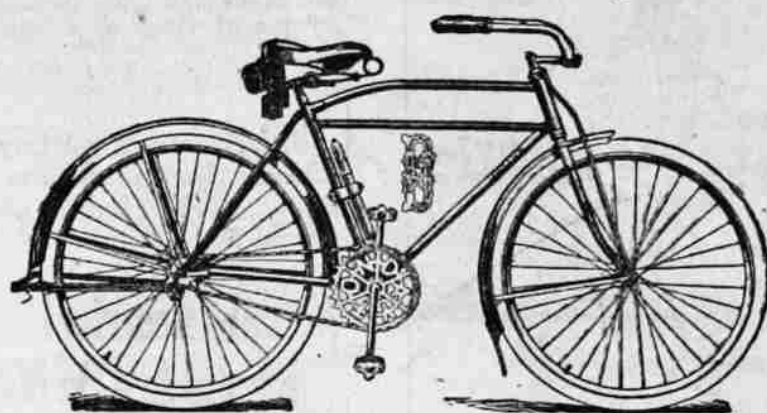

Judge Sullivan stated that he had never seen boys in the court who were more manly in conduct. The straightforwardness of the boys won them the respect of the court as well as leniency of punishment. There was no attempt to dodge the issue or lay the blame upon someone else. Each of the boys admitted that he may have been the one who fired the shot that wounded Miss Davidson, although all claimed to have shot only blanks, so far as their knowledge went. By the questioning of counsel for the defendant Wood, it was evident that the validity of the ordinance will be attacked, as interpreted by the court, and that the alleged permission of the principal will also be used as a defense.
